The galaxy of the 41st Millennium is beset by war. Within this grim, dark future, Humanity's greatest defence are the Adeptus Astartes - brutal gene-forged warriors - whose actions turn the tide of war zones, and whose voices rise above the clamour of battle.

Their words lay bare what it is to be an Angel of Death: courageous acts of valour, bonds of brotherhood, unrelenting hatred, and violent intent. Within these pages you will find all this and more manifest in the quotes of legendary Space Marines.
